

DADY THIOUNE

Dady Thioune

Dady Thioune first picked up the guitar at the age of 9. A self-taught inspired young talent, you may have seen him on stage worldwide, accompanying most of Senegalese master singers and bands like Omar Pene, Orchestra Baobab, Baaba Mal ...

In his country Senegal, he is also known as a producer, a songwriter, a sound engineer, a source of musical energy for lots of talents like Wally Seck! whom he is helping develop live projects or album recordings.

Today, here he is, alone, intimately taking the front of the stage!

With his acoustic guitar guiding him on his magic carpet, Dady Thioune sings an original African blues folk. Back from multiple musical adventures to finally find his own path, he comes with melodies that he has been seeking deep inside, and then share with us. Come discover this new icon, offering beautiful enchanting tunes, from Dakar to the World.

<https://bfan.link/serero>

<https://bfan.link/mame-5>